18th August, 1986.

Mr. Graeme Sleeman,
REDACTED
GLEN WAVERLEY, Vic.

Thank you for your letter of 30th July, 1986, which was awaiting me on my return from overseas.

It is obvious from your letter that you are aware of the "desk lag" which follows time away from duties. On this occasion, there is no exception. The mounds of paper are higher than ever.

May I therefore suggest that as a first step in the matter which you have wished to raise, I would be grateful if you arrange for a meeting with my Director of the Catholic Education Office, Father T.M. Doyle, to discuss the matters which are of concern to you at this particular time.

I am taking the liberty of forwarding to Fr. Doyle a copy of your letter so that he will expect to hear from you in the near future.

May the Lord bless you as you give yourself for the purposes of excellence in Catholic education.

With cordial greetings and every best wish,

I remain,

Yours sincerely in Christ,

E

ARCHBISHOP OF MELBOURNE
