URGENT

Dear Sir

BRISBANE GRAMMAR SCHOOL - NOTICE OF CIRCUMSTANCES

We refer to our fax to you dated 7 June in which we gave Notice of Circumstances which are likely to give rise to claims.

We spoke to Simone of your office today who informed us that although you are in Brisbane this week you are uncontactable. We also informed Simone that this matter requires immediate attention because there are issues which we are dealing with on behalf of the insured. She said to fax any further relevant material as the matter would be dealt with in your absence.

We now attach a draft press release which our client intends issuing to the press tomorrow afternoon together with the Chairman of the Trustees attending a press interview.

No doubt you will let us know if you have any objection to our client issuing the press release.

Yours faithfully

CORRS CHAMBERS WESTGARTH
